Pupil's Responsibilities

As in every school, there are rules at Mahar Children Academy, Sagar and they exist to ensure that the children are safe, feel secure, work well in each other's company and enjoy good relationships. Happily, most pupils co-operate, they are sensible, hard – working and courteous to one another and to staff, and for them disciplinary action is quite unnecessary.

Pupils are encouraged at all times to think about the wisdom of what they are doing and its effect on others.

These school rules include:

1. Show consideration, care and respect for others.
2. Allow others to work without interruption.

3. Attend school regularly and on time.
